

Book Week

On Friday, 22 August 2025
our school will celebrate Book Week with a parade.

Everyone can dress up as a book character.

At 8:35am, classes will go out to the flag grass area, and sit ready for the parade.

All classes will walk in a line around the flag grass to show others our costumes.

My teacher will tell me when we need to line up and where we need to go.

When the parade is finished, I will walk in a line with my teacher and classmates back to our classroom.

I can change back into my school uniform or keep wearing my costume.

If I have any questions about the parade I can ask my teacher.
